

Rehanah Sadiq

Rehanah Sadiq was born in Gujranwala, Pakistan, and has lived in Britain since 1961. She has worked as a Muslim chaplain for two Birmingham NHS Hospital Trusts since the year 2000, both of which have developed into pro-active multi-faith teams. She is involved in multi-faith Chaplaincy training and in inter-faith activities locally and nationally.

She has been counselling in the Muslim community for over 30 years. In 2006 she qualified as a psychotherapist from the University of Central England in Birmingham. She was selected as a chaplain in the London2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games, and then recently for the Glasgow2014 Commonwealth Games.

She is an Honorary Visiting Chaplaincy Fellow at the Markfield Institute of Higher Education, a Faith Advisor to West Midlands Police Chaplaincy and a member of the WMP Faith and Chaplaincy Liaison Committee.

Rehanah is married and has four grown-up children. Her aspirations include writing a book and furthering study in Arabic and Islamic jurisprudence in a Chaplaincy context.
